JUDGING CRITERIA

Creativity and Originality—evidence of imagination, creativity and individuality.
Technique—media and tools have been chosen and utilised competently to enhance the appearance of the work.
Organisation—elements and principles of art are used effectively and selectively to enhance the appearance of the work.
Clarity of theme—artworks combine technique, expression and organisation through artistic and critical judgement.
Presentation—the presentation is in accordance with the style of the art piece.
The judges’ decision is final—no discussion will be entered into.
The judges reserve the right not to award a prize in any category if, in their belief, the work is not of a worthy standard for a prize.
